A MESSAGE FROM THE CONVENER

Welcome to GWC 26

Dear Friend,

Welcome to The Global Work Conference 2026 — a conference built for this moment.

We live in an era of extraordinary disruption and extraordinary opportunity. Artificial intelligence is no longer a distant future concept, it is reshaping careers, industries and businesses right now, today. And yet, for most professionals and entrepreneurs, the path forward feels uncertain. Questions like "Is my job safe?" "How do I stay relevant?" "Where is the real opportunity?" are being asked by millions of people across the globe every single day.

The Global Work Conference was created to answer those questions not with theory, but with practical insight, real expertise and a global community of people who are committed to moving forward together.

Over two extraordinary days, we will bring together world-class speakers, thought leaders, coaches and practitioners to explore what the AI economy really means for your career, your business and your future. We will challenge assumptions, surface opportunities and equip you with tools you can use the very next day.

This is our maiden edition, and we are building something we believe will grow into one of the most important annual conversations for professionals across the globe.

We are honoured to have you here.
Welcome to the GWC family.

ABOUT THE GLOBAL WORK CONFERENCE

What Is GWC?

The Global Work Conference is a landmark annual virtual event organised by SII and The Terry Omodibo International Company. It is designed for ambitious professionals, entrepreneurs, emerging leaders and career builders who are ready to unlock their place in the AI-powered global economy.

GWC brings together world-class speakers, practical knowledge, digital skills insight and a thriving global community, all committed to thriving in the future of work. It is a conference that does not just inform, it transforms.

The maiden edition of GWC takes place across two days in September 2026, featuring keynote sessions, a headline session, a panel discussion, four concurrent breakout tracks, a fireside chat and a premium paid experience.

OUR VISION

To become a globally recognised platform empowering talents, professionals, entrepreneurs, and emerging leaders to thrive in the future world of work through innovation, digital transformation, and global opportunity access.

OUR MISSION

To connect global talents and emerging professionals with industry leaders, practical knowledge, digital opportunities, and transformational networks that enable sustainable career growth, entrepreneurship, and economic participation in the AI-driven global economy.

SPEAKERS PROFILE

FIRST KEYNOTE SPEAKER

BRIEF PROFILE

James Garner FRICS is Head of AI and Data at Gleeds, a global consultancy in property and construction. With over 25 years of experience, he specialises in digital transformation and the practical use of data and AI to enhance project outcomes. James chairs the cross-industry Project Data Analytics Task Force and is a key voice in UK professional bodies, including APM and RICS, where he advocates for responsible AI adoption and digital upskilling. He has been named in the Data IQ 100 and contributed to the RICS Responsible AI Professional Standard. He is also the founder of Project Flux, a platform combining newsletters, podcasts and educational resources to help industry professionals navigate the intersection of AI and project delivery.

SESSION

Session Title: Opening Keynote — Unlocking Global Opportunities in the AI Economy

In this opening keynote, James will set the tone and frame the conversation for the entire conference. Drawing on over 25 years of experience at the cutting edge of AI and data transformation, he will explore what the AI economy truly means for working professionals and organisations today not as a distant future concept but as a present reality already reshaping careers, industries and opportunity. James will speak to the scale and pace of AI transformation, what it means for the global workforce, and what forward-thinking professionals and organisations need to be doing right now to position themselves on the right side of this shift. His personal journey navigating AI transformation from within a global organisation will be woven throughout the session, making this not just insightful but deeply human and relatable.

Session Time: 11:35am — 12:10pm BST, Saturday 5 September 2026,

JAMES GARNER

BSc (Hons), FRICS, RITTECH, AMBCS

Head of AI & Data, Gleeds
Founder, Project Flux

SPEAKERS PROFILE

SECOND KEYNOTE SPEAKER

BRIEF PROFILE

Jamie Pajoel is a globally recognised leadership expert, author and the founder of Workplace Institute Canada, a premier institution dedicated to developing high-impact leaders and equipping organisations with the leadership culture, systems and capacity they need to thrive in a rapidly changing world. With a compelling personal story of reinvention and a deeply human approach to leadership development, Jamie has built a reputation for transforming the way professionals and organisations think about growth, purpose and performance. Known for his powerful delivery, depth of insight and ability to connect with audiences across cultures and career stages, Jamie has spoken to thousands of professionals across Africa, North America and beyond. His work through the Workplace Institute spans leadership training, executive coaching, organisational development and professional reinvention and his conviction that every professional carries the capacity for extraordinary impact runs through everything he does.

Jamie brings to GWC 2026 not just expertise but lived experience - the kind of personal story of transformation that makes an audience lean in, rethink their assumptions and leave ready to act.

SESSION

Session Title: Keynote — The Rise of Borderless Careers & Global Talent: Reinventing Yourself in a Changing Digital Economy

In this keynote, Jamie will explore one of the most urgent and personal questions facing professionals today - what does it truly mean to reinvent yourself in the age of AI? Drawing on his own remarkable journey and his deep experience developing leaders across the globe, he will unpack what the rise of borderless careers and global talent really means for the professional sitting at home wondering what their next move should be. This session is not about abstract strategy, it is about the real, practical, deeply human work of reinvention. Jamie will leave every attendee with a clear sense of what is possible for them, the courage to pursue it and the framework to begin.

Session Time: 12:10pm — 12:50pm BST, Saturday 5 September 2026

DR JAMIE PAJOEL

Leadership Expert, Author &
International Speaker

Workplace Institute Canada

SPEAKERS PROFILE

HEADLINE SESSION SPEAKER

BRIEF PROFILE

Dr Isabela Parisio is a postdoctoral research associate at King's College London, contributing to AI policy and regulation as part of Responsible AI UK. A New York State Bar-qualified lawyer with an international legal background specialising in public law and AI policy, she holds an LLM from Georgetown University Law Center and a Master's in Law & Development from FGV Direito SP in Brazil. She is currently principal investigator of a project prototyping AI regulations and testing their implementation through fraud detection algorithms. A large part of her work involves converting complex regulatory research into language that policymakers, regulators and industry actors can actually use — bridging the implementation gap in AI governance.

SESSION

Session Title: Headline Session — Beyond the Algorithm: How Global AI Policy Is Rewriting the Rules of Work and How to Stay Ahead of the Curve

This headline session takes attendees beyond the headlines and into the architecture of the AI economy, the regulatory and policy decisions being made right now that will shape every career, business and industry in the years ahead. Dr Parisio will unpack the global AI policy landscape in plain language, exploring the gap between what policymakers intend and what is actually happening on the ground, and what that gap means for the everyday professional and entrepreneur. She will help attendees understand how to read the policy map, identify where the real opportunities lie and position themselves ahead of the regulatory shifts defining the next decade of work.

Session Time: 12:55pm — 1:30pm BST, Saturday 5 September 2026,

DR ISABELA PARISIO

Postdoctoral Research Associate,
King's College London

Responsible AI UK | New York State
Bar-Qualified Lawyer

SPEAKERS PROFILE PANELIST

BRIEF PROFILE

Dr Ayo Adeyemi is a distinguished thought leader and speaker whose expertise spans leadership, professional development and the evolving dynamics of the global workforce. With a depth of knowledge and experience that commands attention in any room, Dr Adeyemi brings both intellectual rigour and practical wisdom to the conversations he engages in. He is known for speaking with candour, insight and a genuine commitment to helping professionals navigate change with confidence and clarity.

SESSION

Session Title: Panel Discussion — The Future of Work: Is AI Creating More Jobs Than It Destroys?

Dr Adeyemi joins a panel of four distinguished voices to debate one of the most pressing questions of our time — is AI ultimately creating more opportunity than it takes away? Drawing on his expertise and experience, he will challenge assumptions, surface insights and help the audience develop a more nuanced and empowering understanding of what AI truly means for the future of their careers and businesses.

Session Time: 1:30pm — 2:25pm BST, Saturday 5 September 2026, (includes 15 minutes live audience Q&A)

DR AYO ADEYEMI

CEO/Founder, Lorache
Consulting, Canada

SPEAKERS PROFILE PANELIST

BRIEF PROFILE

Abraham Ofure Orukpe is the CEO and Principal Consultant at BUSLMA, a strategist and business growth expert known for guiding African organisations through complex challenges toward scalable, sustainable profitability. With deep expertise in financial management, accounting principles and tax laws, Abraham has trained and consulted for over 1,000 business owners and their staff across Africa. He is also CEO of Smile Planet Farms and Smile Planet Facility Management, a mentor with the Tony Elumelu Foundation, and the convener of Smile Planet Foundation. His approach is rooted in practical, data-driven methods tailored to African markets.

SESSION

Session Title: Panel Discussion — The Future of Work: Is AI Creating More Jobs Than It Destroys?

Abraham brings the voice of the African entrepreneur and business growth strategist to this panel. With his track record of working with over 1,000 businesses and his deep understanding of the practical, on-the-ground realities of building and growing businesses in African markets, he will contribute a perspective that is both grounded and global, speaking directly to what the AI economy means for business owners and entrepreneurs who are building today.

Session Time: 1:30pm — 2:25pm BST, Saturday 5 September 2026, (includes 15 minutes live audience Q&A)

ABRAHAM ORUKPE

CEO | Principal Consultant &
Business Growth Expert

BUSLMA Nigeria

SPEAKERS PROFILE

PANELIST

BRIEF PROFILE

Samuel Ibanda is an accountant and finance coach based in Kampala, Uganda, with a deep commitment to equipping professionals and entrepreneurs across East Africa with the financial knowledge and strategic thinking they need to build sustainable careers and businesses. His work sits at the intersection of financial literacy, professional development and economic empowerment, and his grounded, practical approach to coaching has made him a trusted voice in his field. Samuel brings to GWC 2026 an East African perspective that adds vital geographic and professional diversity to the panel discussion.

SESSION

Session Title: Panel Discussion — The Future of Work: Is AI Creating More Jobs Than It Destroys?

Samuel will contribute the voice of the African finance professional and coach to this panel, speaking to what the AI economy looks and feels like from the ground up for professionals and entrepreneurs building careers and businesses in East Africa and the broader Global South. His contribution brings a perspective that is often absent from global conversations about AI and the future of work, and one that our audience will find both refreshing and deeply relevant.

Session Time: 1:30pm — 2:25pm BST, Saturday 5 September 2026, (includes 15 minutes live audience Q&A)

SAMUEL IBANDA
Chartered Accountant & Manager
KPMG, Kampala, Uganda

SPEAKERS PROFILE

FIRESIDE CHAT SPEAKER

BRIEF PROFILE

Kate Onakomaiya is a transformation specialist, leadership coach and speaker whose life's work is centred on helping individuals and organisations achieve clarity, unlock their potential and step into the fullness of who they are called to be. As an Executive Director and President's Advisory Council member with The John Maxwell Team and the founder and lead coach at Exponential Growth Academy Ltd, Kate has spent years in the trenches with professionals, leaders and organisations navigating change, growth and transformation. She believes deeply that our hearts speak louder than our words and her approach to speaking is built on authenticity, personal experience and a genuine care for the people in the room.

SESSION

Session Title: Fireside Chat — More Than a Job: Finding Your Purpose at the Intersection of Passion, People and the New Economy

By the time attendees reach Kate's fireside chat, they will have spent a full day absorbing strategy, insight, skills and opportunity. What they will need in this final session is not more information, it is meaning. Kate will lead an intimate, honest and deeply human conversation about what it truly means to work with purpose in the age of AI. What is the difference between a job, a career and a calling? How do you find your purpose in a world that keeps telling you to be more productive? And what does it mean to build a life — not just a living — in the new economy? This is the session people will still be thinking about long after the conference ends.

Session Time: 3:40pm — 4:25pm BST, Saturday 5 September 2026, includes audience Q&A

KATE ONAKOMAIYA

Founder, Exponential Growth
Academy Ltd

SPEAKERS PROFILE

BREAKOUT FACILITATOR — AI & DIGITAL SKILLS TRACK

BRIEF PROFILE

Promise Akwaowo is a highly sought-after digital skills strategist and speaker whose work is centred on equipping professionals with the practical AI and digital tools they need to remain competitive, hireable and highly paid in the global economy. Known for his high-energy delivery, deep practical knowledge and ability to make complex digital concepts immediately accessible, Promise connects with audiences across industries and career stages. He is one of the most active and impactful voices in the African professional development space. At GWC 2026 he plays the role as the facilitator of the AI & Digital Skills breakout track.

SESSION

Session Title: AI & Digital Skills Breakout — The New Career Currency: Digital and AI Skills That Get You Hired, Promoted and Paid Globally

In this breakout session, Promise will decode exactly which digital and AI skills the global job market is paying for right now and how professionals can begin building them immediately. Practical, punchy and immediately applicable, this session is designed to leave every attendee with a clear personal skills action plan and the confidence to compete in the global economy.

Session Time: 2:30pm — 3:30pm BST, Saturday 5 September 2026,

BREAKOUT FACILITATOR — CAREER & PROFESSIONAL GROWTH TRACK

BRIEF PROFILE

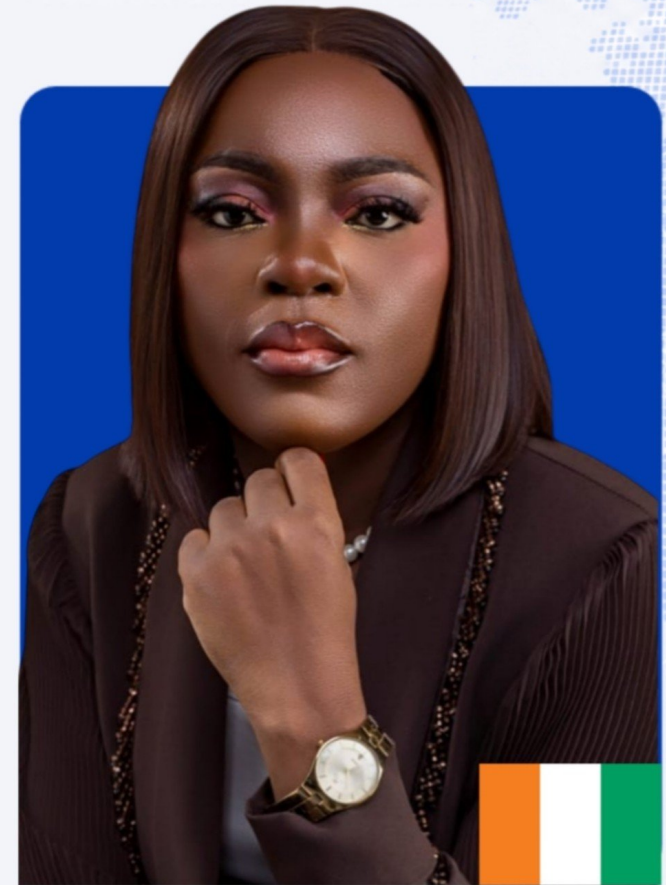

Omobabarin Osideko is an accountant and the founder of TIBA Academy, bringing together professional financial expertise and a deep passion for equipping professionals with the visibility, tools and confidence they need to access global opportunity. Her work sits at the intersection of professional credibility and career development, helping individuals not just to be qualified, but to be seen, found and chosen in an increasingly competitive global marketplace. Her practical, outcome-focused approach to professional development makes her a natural fit for the GWC platform.

SESSION

Session Title: Career & Professional Growth Breakout — How to Optimise Your LinkedIn Profile to Attract Global Recruiters and Remote Roles

LinkedIn has become the single most powerful professional visibility tool in the world, yet the vast majority of professionals are using it well below its potential. In this practical, hands-on session, Omobabinrin will walk attendees through exactly what global recruiters and remote employers are looking for, how to position your profile for maximum visibility, and the specific changes you can make today to start attracting the global opportunities you deserve. Attendees are encouraged to have their LinkedIn profile open and ready during this session.

Session Time: 2:30pm — 3:30pm BST, Saturday 5 September 2026
